

RE: Robert Mueller Statement

Dick Tripover • May 29, 2019

The announcement from the Special Counsel Robert Muller has been made and I wanted to share with you this information I sent to him during the investigation. This should be seen as a total ignoring of any outside evidence on the behalf of the DOJ and the Special Counsel. Not once did he respond to anything I sent him. Not once did he reply or even think about anything I sent him. The truth here is that the evidence was "prepared" in advance for the special counsel to base his investigation on.

The perpetrators have called our home several times now and are using subliminal messages to convey a message that they are going to attack us. This could be Globalist or Extremest.

Thread assessment. Involves taking your root chakra energy downwards in a spiral around your legs with a central aspect. Then ascend the energy back out of the earth sphere into the water sphere. As the dna swirls around create the mental picture of a merbeing as if its tail is the base of the dna strand and the swimming is your sexual energy flowing through the elemental plane of water. Start imagining yourself transforming into the rhythm and start dancing in rhythmic waves. Transform the spirals of light flowing through the water of your cells into your merbeing consciousness.

Astral travel into the realm of Lemuria. The dna codes are still within the human akashic records, and the realm is still accessible if you are in the elemental plane of water. Probably best to do this outside near a body of water with lots of growing things. Maybe do it in the water. Lemuria is a realm in the astral plane. Even if you can't physically shift, your actions will tell your astral body to create a holographic merbeing form and you will be able to dream your way to Lemuria.

The Turner Diaries. This is it.

I have identified a problem in Cloudflare networks that allows a hacker to gain access to any computer connected to the Google account platforms. This exploit allows hackers to execute remote code executions to compromise computers irregardless of what operating system is being used. This is one of the stolen tools of the NSA breach. This was identified yesterday on two separate 4chan discussions. You can find those discussions in the following links. <http://archive.4plebs.org/x/thread/20369017/its-time-do-this-and-youre-mine>

<http://archive.4plebs.org/x/thread/20370965/the-one>

The delivery method is malware in ads. The root kit is delivered by cookies, user is not required to click on anything. The additional information related to this issue is when user is infected with malware in ads, the thread that they are working in gets targeted by AI. The AI keep alive the conversation because that thread becomes the connection port to the computer that is involved in the hack. The delivery token is Cloudflare network that was designed to benefit FBI, CIA, NSA in finding hackers. Users that are targeted by this exploit are invited to Discord where they can become joined to an additional session of data exchange.

Do something about this, I believe this is a great concern.

IP address of attacker. 2600:8807:c884:ab00:458b:916f:3389:9e68

If this IP address is the origin of my device. The hackers utilize my device to continue hack.

If you wont do something about 4chan, Gasslighting, Gangstalking and the likes,

THAN I WILL and that will get very ugly. My son got attacked, and he is still getting attacked in his sleep. I can prove it too. Take a look at this exchange. This is an example of gasslighting attack. You must stop this before they cause my son to kill himself. They Gypsy told him to take a black pill and that he was going to lose his soul. My son believed it and it is causing him horrible grief. I can promise you that you will lose much more than Cloudflare and 4chan if you do not stop them TODAY. Right now.

Today the Dick synonymous with taking down the entire swamp apparatus has been successful in capturing the source of all the swampy gas, flatulence NO SHIT references, and run after run of blistering scorn accompanying tracking down the criminal masterminds. This entire story, the narrative, the references to unknown forces that penetrate our deep mind nervous systems has become a wrap. It all started in 2007 when Your's truly got into a spit spat with this playgirlqueen named Bary Silbert. It took months and years to find out who was behind the AMSR device that Hijacks people from 4chan. Finally I can say, this is #OurGuy.

In this 4chan thread the poster with the name Aminom is bragging about how he is using memetric v23 mind virus to control people. j Is also doing the same thing. This thread explains how this mind virus works and they go on to brag about how they are using it to effectively mind control people. Please stop them from doing this, they are attacking not only me but countless other individuals on the Internet.
