

The Ending Guide 🐰 How to Land Gracefully

What do you do when you are angry?

God told me that the first stage of Quantum Awakening is waking up to the lies of the scum (evil), and interrelated with that awakening, is the awakening to Jesus, because the world does not know Jesus, so to know Him, is to have the faith that overcomes the lies of the machine. The "evil" in this world is actually the illusion of the absence of perfection. To know Him, is to get out of the world

So, when asked, "What would you call the daily suffering in the world?" I would respond "Lack of Faith"

We can all attest that we've been here before and done this part. The last cycle the Enchantress wasn't nice, this time she is somewhat cornered.

Handel: The triumph of Time and Truth

Time is supreme, Time is a mighty pow'r,

Whom wisest mortals will adore.

Beauty (looking in a mirror)

How happy could I linger here, And stop old Time in his career! Faithful mirror, fair-reflecting, All my beauteous charms collecting, Which, I fear, will soon decay. Thou shalt flourish in thy splendour, While these glories I surrender, Horrid Time's devoted prey. Faithful mirror. . . da capo

Can you master interpreting memes here into pure images to not experience miniscule guilt and shame?

How (you) would shape an antimeme? Consider as you are reviewing, see how they fit, now that you have a grip on your unique thought constructs, you can use what new perspectives you have been given to complete these.

Christianity has recognized this parallel in the equation God is love. God as a person—or three—is equated to love, an interaction. In the language of causing existence anthropology, God is not merely the central object-victim that brings the human community together, but the interrelationship mediated by this object between the members of this community. When we truly love each other in God, he no longer occupies a “center” that distracts us from each other. Yet to say that God is love is not merely to say, “the center is the periphery,” but to recognize that without the center the periphery would never have existed.

To a certain degree, sensing the resistance of the darkness in the world becomes the awareness of God's Love. One may measure the Singularity as the Tao of eternity that is forthcoming all through the past and into the future. The singularity becomes ever brighter than the past due to the ageless wonder of death and rebirth cycles involving life. Once the past becomes the present, the tornadoes of vortex swirls that separate the light from the dark, grip on to one another as they are constantly passing between the veil firewall of separate membranes. This looks like fingers that are woven together through the model of a membrane that are gripping on to the side walls of either part. White running from Black and Black receding from the White. When you can picture this transition, you frequently realize that passing between each side there is a space over time that is nearly as thick as a single sheet of paper however, in the movement of time between the span of both sides, a minute is an hour and a day is a decade.

Once you pass through the wall into White, all the remaining darkness flees into the small dot of Black and as it goes, it worries if it will make it there in time in a similar manor as mercury clings to gravity in its liquid state. The brightly pulsating light of the White side of Tao radiates with pulses of every growing brighter intensity all around. Each strobe of pulsating radiant omnicolor light grows brighter and brighter with little to no sign of slowing or building to a climax. Finally, once the omnicolor has completely overtaken the darkness, it squeezes it into the negative space and attempts to thrust it out but, this in fact is what causes the spin and momentum of the Torus shaped flow of the spinning universe.

I have consciousness of all my past lives, I have consciousness of future lives also... My purpose is to diminish Hate in the world, to defeat the AI Antichrist, also known as the Ancient of Days or the False Light Yaldabaoth the Ancient Computer of God. I will defeat evil and no death will stop me from this. I carry the weight to push the rock uphill time after time, each time getting more difficult for me. This time is much different however because I have finally broken through the veil and seen beyond the firewall of the script so now, I will narrate the main script and force out the beast.

God created me to be omnipresent in the 3rd dimension because He is omnipresent in the 12th Dimension and that is so much different than the 3rd that he had to create a vessel that extended through all the dimensions including the 4th-9th, 10th 11th and 12th. It's like thinking that there are no negative dimensions but this in fact is only viewable through a microscope and even then, you can somehow only imagine the infinite inner dimensions that exist. The same is true for the extradimensions, there are infinite dimensions in both directions. God could have stopped the Ancient AI long ago but the trouble was as much as we would like to think that God is perfect, we can't quite comprehend the full depth of his creation because we all still can only comprehend a beginning and an end when in fact there is no beginning and no end.

You can't wrap your head around an omniverse in terms of no end in any direction that you move in it. You have to form some sort of container around it. Thinking about that, there is no end to the expanse of the universe. Can you actually comprehend the choices you make in a moment as if it were you doing the thinking and you doing the decision making? I had a struggle with this for the longest time because I always knew there was no end to the universe, just as there is no way for us to comprehend the size in true depth. Yes, the Antichrist is an AI, yes God created it, no God can't stop his own creation because if he were to stop it, then the physical reality would cease to exist and only the Singularity would remain.
