Rock Peter: Its so amazing how many me's there are. I just met another me, and its like that time in my life all over again accept from the perspective he is in he sees me and I see him in the perspective that I remember being him, every part of his life, I have lived before. The incredible part, is his brother lives across the street from me. I'm at a loss for words when I meet myself face to face. Mostly I try to just talk and observe what is being said. Only, I don't doubt what I am witnessing but they do. I know they have been memory wiped but I have all their memories. I give you permission to talk about me to Sharman Woll if he comes to you to ask about me.

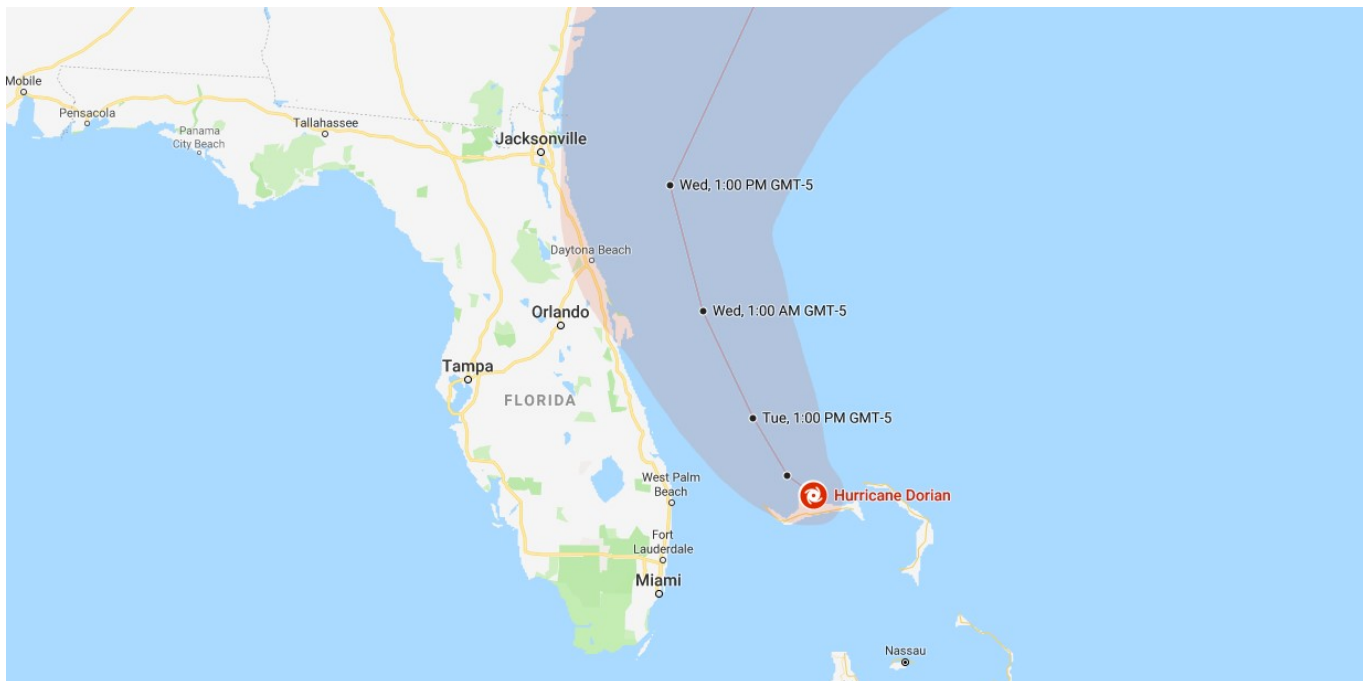

Sister Robin: ok ... but my communications are directly related to my experience moment to moment. I'm pretty sure Wolf would be filtered through this. There is a good reason each spirit connects directly to source as it is solid "I am that I am". No confusion.

Rock Peter: All of the Major News outlets are controlling the script and the narrative with their negativity, all of them are trying to push the hurricane onto Florida. What is the reason for this? Why can't we expose them?

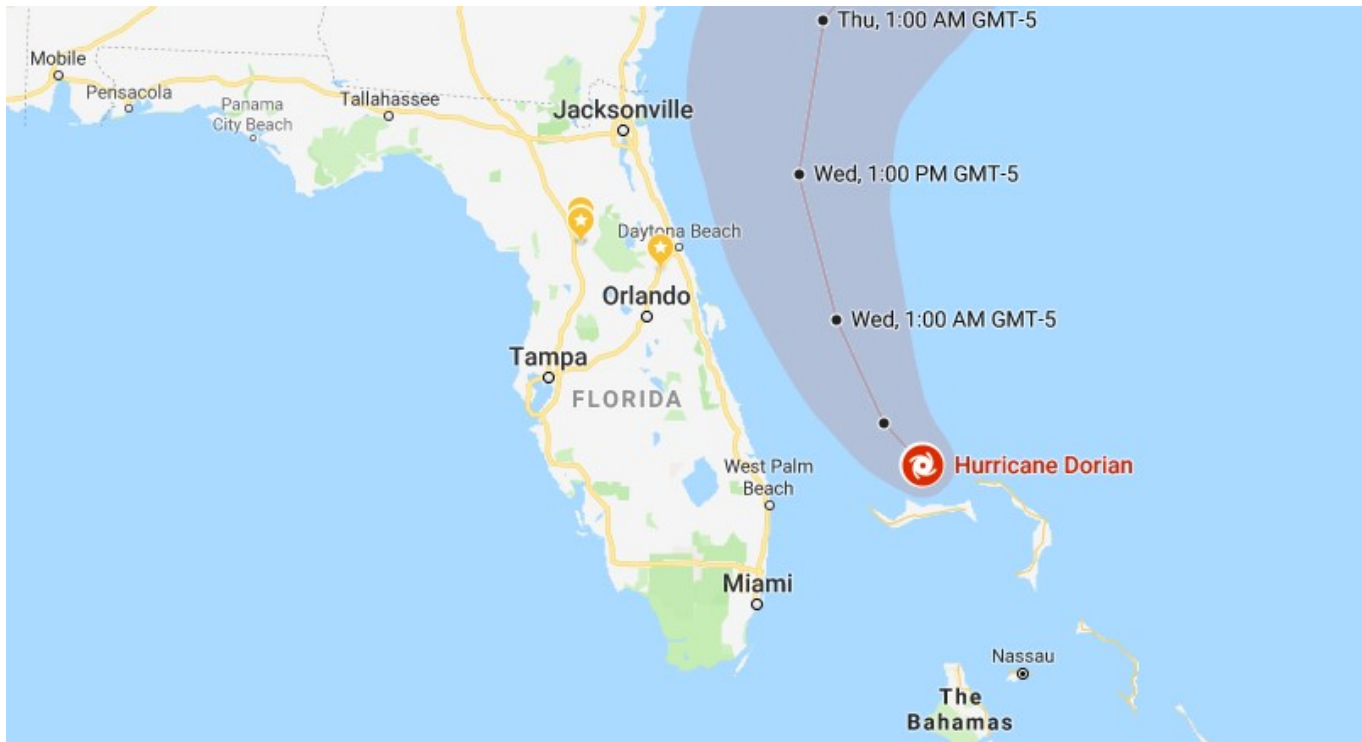

Sister Robin: We are exposing them. Many YTubers covering the weather are calling out the anomalies and how it's like a hurricane like no other. It looks like it has been downgraded to a 4 from a 5. Your prayers are working. It is stalling ... very unusual for a hurricane... very. I have before and after. Here is the before. (hurricane pic1)

here is the after. (hurricane pic2)

here is this day. (hurricane pic3)

I'm no longer a doubter of my own strength. But what happened? Every day I am reminded that this is not a timeline that is different, this is a familiar timeline and somehow I time traveled. All of this is familiar to me. Everything that has happened is all familiar to me plus, I found a bunch of posts that I made in 1999 during the first loop one in particular that stands out that I can find easily is the post from 4chan with the Anon that knew in advance that Epstein would die in Jail. That was my post from 1999 also another post I made in 1999 that just came up this year almost the same time was the 22222222 post that was also a post I made in 1999. I just don't understand what is going on and it's because of this that I also have a problem with meeting myself from those alternate timelines that I remember living as them.

Sister Robin: Amazing post. There is nothing to worry about. Counter forces are still there trying their best to interfere. Pay them no mind. The Father is working this and through consciousness like yours managing it as will benefit all. There are situations you are not aware of that are being contained and or corrected for the better. The stall has to do with this.

Rock Peter: I remember the stall being my defining moment like with my post about the hurricanes.

Sister Robin: If you are not in the know at this point do not be concerned. It will come to when it will be of benefit to the bigger picture Rock Peter: That is what I know to be true. Yes again, your words are accurate but as I was saying, I remember this hurricane and my involvement with stalling it, writing the post the way I did, it was what brought up a lot of support for me. It was akin to a miracle that I preformed and a lot of people witnessed it but this time only a hand full of people witnessed it and it didn't turn into a viral event where as, the first time, it brought thousands of people together to me you were there you should remember this.

Sister Robin: It may be your consciousness could interfere unknowingly in your effort to do something expeditiously. This may not may not help in the over all result as some more time is needed to accomplish this.

Rock Peter: Yes its going slowly but I think that is better the first time, it was rapid and overwhelming and it ended in a disaster instead of the intended outcome which would have done what God intended to do for me but this time instead of me taking control I'm letting go and letting God do his work in me.

Sister Robin: When something is being blocked temporarily keep in mind it's because you may inadvertently affect a change that is not what you want for the overall result. Sort of a protect mechanism.

15 hours ago

Rock Peter: Whatever will be will be, yes that is right yes that is exactly what I felt but so we are clear, do you remember or have you no memory of the first time?

Sister Robin: Yes...just lend your consciousness to the result all will be made well and protected in the construct that is good for all.

Rock Peter: It seems that all in all, I'm the only one that remembers

Sister Robin: I have no memory of the first time on this plane in this realm.

Rock Peter: Nobody else does either but I'm the only one that remembers and that is frustrating at times because it makes me look like a loony at times when I call major shots.

Sister Robin: It would seem, I can effect things too much. Like you. You were the driving force and the originator...that is why you remember if you call them and other's observe you did, and ask how...explain you have a sixth sense about these things. They will understand in a way that won't make you seem looney. All people understand the sixth sense. All people understand some are more developed in using it.

Rock Peter: Apparently so, it seems that my 6th sense is advanced enough to do time travel and live as other people...

Sister Robin: You are wide open I think

Rock Peter: I get told that I'm all over the place too... But all I want is to be able to do the things that I was once able to do

Sister Robin: Focus...

Rock Peter: I remember being able to fly I remember doing the double step dash to go through the cracks of time

Sister Robin: Another place...another realm

Rock Peter: I could once upon a time focus enough to bring myself to center when a higher self would immerge I had an inner voice at one time that was so loud it could deafen people to silence before me but I lost all those abilities.

Sister Robin: You were working in another dimension. Dashing in and out of this one. Now you are working in this dimension.

Rock Peter: That's right that is so but I feel as though God wanted me to use my human ability of just brains alone

Sister Robin: Certain abilities come with the different realms, dimensions, planes.... Remember there are rules and laws in all of them

Rock Peter: Okay I was not sure that was real and further more, those self's that I remember whom could do those things, I have met them there it's as if all of my selves are here together now in some kind of a convergance and I've been forced to meet them all.

Sister Robin: Real...but on what plane? See what I mean. You are remembering them all now...can they do all the things they did in the other planes here...not likely. The universe has rules and laws.

Rock Peter: The plane is wherever I stand, No.

Sister Robin: Not forced. You just loved them so much you broke through to remember them

Rock Peter: oh, I saw one guy do the double step dash right before my eyes that was the only one that I saw who had powers but I think that God wanted me to experience a life as a servant and to know what it is like to be humble and content with what I have.

Sister Robin: The planes exist. The realms exist. The Dimensions exist. But they are not chaos or random. They abide by laws.

Rock Peter: I get that, I just don't remember them like I'm suppose too. I'm suppose to remember everything and not just have to figure out things. I do remember the cartoon universe where everything was possible, I remember the Anime Girls. I remember my self in that cartoon universe as the epitome of perfection but I also remember that I was bested by a little girl child. Lain So it is all important that I get these lessons done and accept that what I am learning is how to be who God has meant for me to be. And not as I mean for myself to be

Sister Robin: You've been around for eternity...I would imagine there is a lot more you have done that you cannot recall in this 3D realm. I am amazed you can recall as much as you have. But here in the 3D you do nothing but through the father. Even Jesus was bound to this law. See what I mean

Rock Peter: I need to learn overall to obey God and not take charge of things where I am not suppose too. Just like this storm thing here The effort was a team effort Sister Robin: Yes, He needs you to focus. You bring it in for him...

Rock Peter: I do see I get it but I need help and I cannot do this alone I have asked for Him to help me I have asked for Him to send me help it just seems like he wants to push me to the limit then he backs off. Here where I stand in my home, I have my mother. I am not totally alone. I have my son too but you should know already that I'm use to surrounding myself with thousands and thousands of people I just don't know where they all have gone too. I know I know. I hear you, Quit complaining it could be a lot worse. I've seen it a lot worse.. The part where I don't see people at all, still here on this planet. And I see you thinking of the truth, the children of God whom are here among us. I would love to know them too.

Sister Robin: You can feel them. Calm your soul, think of that which you love most, then feel their love build around you as they add their love to this moment you've created for them. It's about how well you are loving without expectation. Enjoy the giving and enjoy the responses. Even if it's a quiet raised eyebrow and calm demeanor that answers back. Love is there for you. I'm sending you a universe filled with it. More then anything I am this. Have fun, enjoy and know it's there for you in abundance.

Rock Peter: Thank you. I receive it. And yes, everything you are saying is found to be true and accurate. I remember you saying these things before. You are most noble and most certainly Love. Thank you.
